

When Finance meets the law you need an expert on your side. Engaging a qualified valuation or economic damages expert as part of a litigation support team can be critical to a successful legal outcome. The team needs a member that can simplify complex financial matters by presenting well supported analyses that potential claimants, lawyers, judges and juries can understand.

Hello, I'm Craig Billings a litigation support expert with SVA. Our approaches to identifying financial considerations, quantifying issues and presenting conclusions in clear effective expert reports or testimony is supported by our proficiency in accounting, finance and business valuation. SVA's team of accredited valuation experts and CPA's understand that judges and juries rely on an independent opinion to make sound judgments. We have extensive court and dispute resolution experience and can help you with your litigation case whether the goal of settlement or trial. We are here to help you during a time that can be overwhelming and uncertain. Contact us today to find out more about how we can help you or your council with your litigation case.
